Mullion School, part of Truro and Penwith Academy Trust, are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and motivated teacher to lead Drama within our thriving school.

As a key member of our staff team, you will be making a significant contribution to the quality of our curriculum, teaching and learning. You will have the opportunity to teach across the full age and ability range at KS3 and KS4. You will be a drama specialist and have a track record of inspiring children to love learning drama, and therefore to continue to study drama at KS4 and beyond. Performing Arts are highly valued by our school and community and you will be a passionate advocate for performance and creativity.

You will share our focus of supporting all our students to achieve their full potential and our commitment to their personal and social development alongside academic excellence.

Of crucial importance to us, our successful applicant will be a determined and resilient team player whose vision and principles fully align with our school's inclusive ethos. They will share our dedication to education and removing barriers for our students, and will have a relentless and ambitious determination to support our students to develop the character and knowledge that will help them flourish and succeed in life.

We are able to offer prospective applicants an opportunity to visit the school prior to application. Please email Sue Bennett, Head's PA to arrange: sb@mullionschool.org.uk Please note that all visitors to the school are required to provide photo ID on arrival.

Safeguarding

TPAT is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff, workers, volunteers, governors and trustees to share this commitment.

Shortlisted candidates will be required to complete a Safeguarding Self-Declaration Form as part of their application. We will also carry out online searches as part of our due diligence on the shortlisted candidates, as updated in the Keeping Children Safe in Education recommendations. This may help identify any incidents or issues that have happened, and are publicly available online, which the School or Trust might want to explore with the candidate at interview.

Successful candidates will be required to complete a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) application and Health Assessment form as part of their pre-employment administration. The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provide that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.
